DECLARATION OF ZACHARY TRUMPP IN SUPPORT OF DEBTORS' REPLY TO U.S. BANK'S RESPONSE TO DEBTORS'
NINETY-EIGHTH, NINETY-NINTH, AND ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH OMNIBUS OBJECTIONS TO CLAIMS (INSUFFICIENT DOCUMENTATION)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, I, Zachary Trumpp, declare:

1. I am over 18 years of age and have personal knowledge of all of the facts set forth in this declaration and if called upon to testify as a witness, I could testify to the truth of the matters set forth herein.

2. I submit this Declaration in support of Debtors' Reply to U.S. Bank National Association's Response to Debtors' Ninety-Eighth, Ninety-Ninth, and One Hundred and Ninth Omnibus Objections to Claims (Insufficient Documentation), ECF No. 18088.

3. I am currently employed by LAMCO LLC ("LAMCO"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Debtor Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI"), and am authorized by LBHI to provide this declaration on LBHI's behalf. I was previously employed by LBHI, and before that, by Aurora Loan Services LLC ("Aurora"), as Vice President of Operational Controls.

4. Bulk sellers, typically large mortgage companies or banks, sold pools of mortgage loans to LBHI through Lehman Brothers Bank ("LBB"). These bulk sellers were known as Transferors. The representations and warranties these Transferors made in regard to the quality of the mortgage loans--for example, that the loan documents contain no untrue statements of fact--were passed through or assigned to the trusts.

5. Smaller sellers sold loans to LBHI through LBB pursuant to standardized loan purchase agreements that incorporated the "Aurora Seller's Guide." These sellers were known as Correspondents. LBB also funded loans based on loan application packages submitted by brokers under broker agreements. Although LBHI made representations and warranties on the Correspondent and Broker loans to the trusts, LBHI retained the right to, in turn, seek indemnification or repurchase of a faulty loan from the Correspondents and Brokers via the applicable agreements.

6. LBHI, through LBB, also originated loans through its Retail channel.

7. Once it acquired mortgage loans through the channels discussed above, LBHI deposited the loans into securitization trusts through a depositor, such as SASCO. Certificates from these trusts were then issued to investors. Banks like U.S. Bank were appointed trustees.

8. In my experience, trustees were responsible for, among other things, distributing payments to certificate holders, and if necessary, pursuing remedies for identified breaches on behalf of the certificate holders. Trustees are able to access loan documents and information via authority granted to them in the trust agreements.

9. LBHI as seller and SASCO as depositor are not authorized to request loan information from primary servicers or master servicers unless explicitly authorized to do so under the trust agreement.

10. Aurora served as primary servicer and/or master servicer for many of the loans in the trusts at issue.

11. Of the 226 residential mortgage-backed securities trusts at issue in U.S. Bank's claims, SASCO is authorized to request loan level data from the master servicer for 42 trusts. Debtors have requested loan level data from Aurora for 35 of these trusts and through this data, have identified an additional 25 alleged breaches of representations and warranties identified by Aurora. The Debtors have asked Aurora for access to similar loan information for the remaining trusts, but it is Aurora's position that only the trustee is entitled to this information. Thus, Debtors are not able to access the loan information for the remaining trusts.

12. Attached as Exhibit A to this Declaration are the relevant portions of the trust agreement for one of the securitizations at issue in U.S. Bank's claims. The trust agreements for all the securitizations for which U.S. Bank is a trustee are substantially similar.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

Dated: June 28, 2011.

respect to the Mortgage Loans if the fact, condition or event constituting such breach also constitutes a breach of a representation or warranty made by the applicable Transferor in the applicable Transfer Agreement, without regard to whether such Transferor fulfills its contractual obligations in respect of such representation or warranty. The Trustee further acknowledges that the Depositor shall have no obligation or liability with respect to any breach of any representation or warranty with respect to the Mortgage Loans (except as set forth in Section 2.03(a)(vi)) under any circumstances.

Section 2.04. Discovery of Breach.

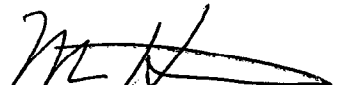

It is understood and agreed that the representations and warranties (i) of the Depositor set forth in Section 2.03 hereof, (ii) of LBH set forth in the Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement and assigned to the Trustee by the Depositor hereunder and (iii) of each Transferor, assigned by LBH to the Depositor pursuant to the Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement and assigned to the Trustee by the Depositor hereunder, shall each survive delivery of the Mortgage Files and the Assignment of Mortgage of each Mortgage Loan to the Trustee and shall continue throughout the term of this Agreement. Upon discovery by any of the Depositor, the Master Servicer or the Trustee of a breach of any of such representations and warranties that adversely and materially affects the value of the related Mortgage Loan, the party discovering such breach shall give prompt written notice to the other parties; provided, to the extent that knowledge of such breach with respect to any Mortgage Loan is known by any officer, director, employee or agent of Aurora acting in any capacity other than as Master Servicer hereunder, the Master Servicer shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any such breach until an officer of the Master Servicer has actual knowledge thereof. Within 90 days of the discovery of a breach of any representation or warranty given to the Trustee by the Depositor, any Transferor or LBH and assigned to the Trustee hereunder, the Depositor, such Transferor or LBH shall either (a) cure such breach in all material respects, (b) repurchase such Mortgage Loan or any property acquired in respect thereof from the Trustee at the Purchase Price or (c) within the two year period following the Closing Date, substitute a Qualifying Substitute Mortgage Loan for the affected Mortgage Loan. In the event of the discovery of a breach of any representation and warranty of any Transferor assigned to the Trustee, the Trustee shall enforce its rights under the applicable Transfer Agreement and the Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement for the benefit of the Certificateholders. As provided in the Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement, if any Transferor substitutes for a Mortgage Loan for which there is a breach of any representations and warranties in the related Transfer Agreement which adversely and materially affects the value of such Mortgage Loan and such substitute mortgage loan is not a Qualifying Substitute Mortgage Loan, under the terms of the Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement, LBH will, in exchange for such Substitute Mortgage Loan, either (i) provide the applicable Purchase Price for the affected Mortgage Loan or (ii) within two years of the Closing Date, substitute such affected Mortgage Loan with a Qualifying Substitute Mortgage Loan.

Section 2.05. Repurchase, Purchase or Substitution of Mortgage Loans.

(a) With respect to any Mortgage Loan repurchased by the Depositor pursuant to this Agreement by LBH pursuant to the Mortgage Loan Sale Agreement or by any Transferor pursuant to the applicable Transfer Agreement, the principal portion of the funds received by the Trustee in respect of such repurchase of a Mortgage Loan will be considered a Principal Prepayment and shall be deposited in the Certificate Account.
